FROM THE EDITORIAL

Calvary greetings, dearly beloved! Grace and peace from our LORD Jesus Christ.

It is with heartfelt gratitude to God and with great delight that we present to you the 2025 final edition of our Apostolic Faith Campus Fellowship (AFCF) quarterly newsletter, themed "Torchbearers".

Living in a society that desperately seeks to define us by its norms, urging us to blend in and conform to its system; pushed widely and aggressively through social media: permeating through our school systems, workplaces, and gradually in through the church, It is easy to get swept off our feet, forgetting our true identities as Christians. Yet, amid this gross darkness, Jesus has given each of us a powerful mandate found in Matthew 5:16: to let our light so shine before our families, our neighbors, our colleagues that they may see our good works and glorify our Father which is in heaven!

Now is no time to be quiet about our faith. A city set on a hill cannot be hid! (Matthew 5:14). It is the time to shine and burn brightly and audaciously in character, in speech, in how we treat others, even in our motives; bringing hope, peace and healing to a sin-sick world; starting from our homes, our community and even on our campuses!

As you read through these spirit-filled words, may your entire being be flooded with light, for the entrance of God's words giveth light.

Yours in Christ Jesus,
The Editorial Team.

AMBASSADORS FOR CHRIST

Who is an Ambassador?

An ambassador is a high-ranking government functionary who is appointed to represent the interests of his country in a foreign land. In the political realm, an ambassador must be of proven integrity. He must be someone who can represent his country in all areas of life, someone who has the interests of his country in his heart so that in the foreign land where he is assigned, he can promote and protect those interests.

How does this relate to us? Most of us here are citizens of this country by birth and upbringing. But by virtue of our membership in the church of the firstborn, we have had another citizenship — the citizenship of heaven. When we are saved from a life of sin, when we live according to the ordinances of God's Word, and when our life conforms to God's requirements in totality, (although we may be Nigerians) our real nationality is heaven. That is the essence of conversion: we become ambassadors for God in a foreign land (this world). With the acquisition of the citizenship of heaven, we, in a sense lose the sole citizenship of this earth. We are now chosen by God to represent His interests in this foreign land.

In Isaiah 43:10-13, God speaks to His witnesses. To be a witness for God one must have tasted God's spiritual blessing; one must have been saved.

God first declares His message of salvation to anyone who will hear. When a person wholeheartedly believes and responds to the message, God saves him from his life of sin. The path to being an ambassador begins with seeking reconciliation with God — the blood of Jesus taking away sin. When sins are forgiven, God will declare to that person the requisite qualifications He demands of him.

The prophets and messengers of old did not wake up one day and begin to declare themselves prophets. God sought them out, groomed them, and equipped them before sending them. That is what God desires to do for us: to prepare and make us ready to deliver the message to dying souls. God does this by purging sin, sanctifying us, and filling us with His power.

I commend you to the power of God to make you ambassadors for Christ in your homes, places of work, businesses, marketplaces, everywhere you have contact with people. Live as ambassadors and carry the message of reconciliation. Amen.

Qualifications and Characteristics of an Ambassador for Christ:

1. Saved, Sanctified and Baptized
2. Gentle And Humble
3. Blameless And Without Reproach
4. Respected In Lifestyle
5. Resolute And Courageous
6. Faithful And Peaceful
7. Mighty In The Scriptures
8. Free From Youthful Lust
9. Fasting And Prayerful

HIGHLIGHTING OUR HERITAGE

I joined The Apostolic Faith Church at a tender age, as a teenager, It was the most turbulent period of my life. I experienced academic failure in secondary school, which led to psychological depression because family members and peers rejected me—I had no single friend or associate.

My being a night DJ and a devoted follower of Fela Anikulapo follower did not help the situation. A colleague of mine, the late Funsho Olatunde, led me to the mourner’s bench at Anthony Village, where I received my three Christian experiences during the 1976 Annual Camp Meeting. Later, I was admitted into MTTC Oru, where I received the grace to attend the Apostolic Faith Campus Fellowship for the first time. Beyond being a Christian fellowship, it became my second home.

The late Rev. J.A.F. Sobowale was attached to us as the Visiting Secretary. We prayed, dined, read, and interacted together, with Christian love binding us as one. It became the bedrock of my Christian journey. Since then, my once-lost hope has been restored through being a member of the fellowship. I was no longer an idle street wanderer during school breaks because AFCF would take us to Camp Meetings, Retreats, Youth Rallies, and other programs—with free meals and accommodation.

By God’s grace, I attended three federal universities and finally earned my Ph.D. without stress, under the umbrella of AFCF. After graduation, I received the grace to teach members of the Fellowship at Ago-Iwoye for more than a decade, where I was mightily inspired and blessed.

I still interact with AFCF members at home and at the global level. I would feel spiritually empty if I were to lose the long-standing relationship I have established with AFCF. AFCF—where love and blessings flourish among youths.

Beloved in Christ,

We cannot help but pause and lift our voices in gratitude to the One who has brought us thus far. Indeed, the Lord has done great things for us, and we are filled with joy. Our most recent edition of the newsletter themed "Torchbearers" reminds us that God has called us as light-bearers in a dark world, vessels carrying the flame of His truth and love. Yet, before a man can carry the torch, he must first be touched by the fire of mercy. Before we can shine, we must first be cleansed. This is why our National Revival Program, themed "Pardoned", has been nothing short of a divine encounter.

We did not only gather to sing; we worshipped. We were reminded of the pardon we received through the blood of Christ; how once we were lost, but now we are found; once condemned, but now forgiven. Through the playlets, we saw our own reflections, how humanity falls, wanders, and resists, yet is met again and again with the outstretched arms of a merciful Father. We were taught that to be truly pardoned is to live daily under the covering of grace, walking in humility and obedience to the One who redeemed us.

Now, beloved, the connection becomes clear: those who are pardoned must become torchbearers. For what use is pardon if not to proclaim freedom? What use is mercy if not to shine it forth as light? Christ Himself declared, "Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid" (Matthew 5:14). Our pardon is the spark that ignites the torch, and that torch is the life we live, carrying Christ to nations, families, campuses, and communities.

Therefore, let us not take lightly what God has done in our midst. We are not merely forgiven to sit idly by, but forgiven to go, to burn brightly, to bear the flame of revival until the whole earth sees His glory.

May we remember this truth: forgiveness makes us free, and freedom commissions us to shine. May God help us to rise as pardoned torchbearers, walking in the light of Christ and carrying His fire to a waiting world.

TESTIMONIES

FEDERAL UNIVERSITY,

I thank God for His saving grace and His faithfulness over my life. As a student, the Lord has been so good to me right from my first year, when He made an inkless pen write in my first exam in school. God's goodness has never ended in my life. Whenever I'm down with sickness, He is always there to heal and raise me up. In times of financial constraints, He has been providing for all my needs. Now, God's grace has brought me this far—to my final year in school. I had a lot of troubles and challenges while writing my project, but I thank God for coming through for me and giving me victory. May God's name be praised.

I want to sincerely thank God for His unending faithfulness and mercy over my life. The greatest gifts I've ever received are the salvation of my soul, the sanctification of my heart, and the baptism of the Holy Ghost. His grace has been my constant help. Coming into LASU, I had great dreams, but I also carried silent fears—fears of failing, of not being enough, of struggling academically or spiritually. But step by step, God has constantly reminded me that His strength is made perfect in my weakness (2 Corinthians 12:9). One of the greatest blessings I've received is finding a spiritual family in AFCF LASU Chapter. Indeed, love lives here. It has not just been a place of worship, but a true family. Though my journey is still unfolding, I can boldly testify of God's sustaining grace. He is not only helping me grow academically but also spiritually, emotionally, and in purpose. I am confident that the God who has started this good work in me will carry it to completion. To Him alone be all the glory.

I thank God for His faithfulness in my life. Truly, God has been my strength; financially, academically and spiritually. Whenever I call upon Him, He hears me. I was diagnosed with Malaria as my final exams and final-year brethren week approached (this is a week-long activity designed for final year students). The test results were quite discouraging, but I believed God for healing and He came through! I commenced my first paper in God's strength and had the opportunity of attending my FYB week. God has been so faithful to me, I can't thank Him enough.
